

A GREAT SHOW.

Elks' Street Fair and Oriental Carnival Continues to

DELIGHT MANY THOUSANDS

Of Patrons, Yesterday's Attendance Having Been 6,000.

THIS THE BIG DAY OF WEEK

'Elks' Day,' and Thousands of Visiting Elks and Their Friends Will Come to See for Themselves What Their Wheeling Brethren are Doing—A Bellaire Infant won the Baby Contest Yesterday Afternoon—The Midway Continues to be the Center of Attraction—Scenes and Incidents of the Second day of the Street Fair.

The second day of the great Elks' street fair and oriental carnival has come and gone, and it was a record-breaker, the attendance even eclipsing that of Monday, when over 6,000 people passed in at the main entrance. It was 'ladies' day,' and the fair sex came out in vast numbers, especially in the afternoon, when the ladies far outnumbered the sterner sex on the grounds.

The weather was delightful, the temperature being tempered by a refreshing breeze in the afternoon, while at night the weather was perceptibly cooler.

To-day is 'Elks' day,' and it is assured that the attendance will be the largest so far this week. From all the surrounding towns and cities, including Pittsburgh, Canton, Parkersburg, Grafton, Fairmont, Sistersville, Little Washington and a score of other towns where Elksdom thrives they are coming to Wheeling to-day. It is the Mecca for everyone in the order who is able to throw aside the cares of business for a day to find enjoyment at Wheeling's great street fair. The railroads have announced reduced rates for the occasion.

The programme for to-day is as follows:

All visiting Elks will be met by reception committee and shown around town. 12:00 o'clock—Address by the Grand Exalted Ruler. 2:00—Winning on the grand stand. Prize, a handsome bed room suit. 10 o'clock—Grand night balloon ascension with fireworks display from balloon, by Madame Lelley. The first exhibition of this kind in this country, at the cost of $1,000.

DURING THE AFTERNOON

The Crowd was Very Large and Everything Went off Smoothly.

The afternoon crowd was considerably larger than Monday's, fully 3,500 people passing in at the main entrance. The people patronized all the attractions, and the exhibits in Exhibitors' row were not the least attractive. It was the general verdict that the merchants and charitable organizations of Wheeling have done themselves proud in the make-up of Exhibitors' row, and the visiting show people say Wheeling's is far ahead of anything they have seen at other street fairs. Wheeling always has had a top-notch reputation for the progressiveness of her merchants, and the street fair has been an opportunity to demonstrate that the reputation has been earned.

After Exhibitors' row comes the large elevated stand where the baby contest was an attraction during the early part of the afternoon. This proved to be a very pleasing feature. It was too bad, however, that Wheeling wasn't able to prevent Bellaire from capturing the prize.

Another pleasing feature during the afternoon was the band concert by the Wheeling Opera House military band, under the direction of Prof. E. W. Spill. Of course the Midway drew the crowd. The Japanese theatre, the Mexican and Porto Rican show, the animal shows, the streets of Cairo, the German village, the Indian show—all enjoyed marked popularity, and the public seemed to be entirely satisfied with the performances. Programmes in nearly all of the shows are changed daily.

THE SCENE AT NIGHT

Was one of Brilliance and Beauty. The Grounds Were Crowded.

The crowd at night was far larger than the afternoon's attendance, and it was stated fully 4,000 people passed through the gates after 6 o'clock. When the electric current was turned on the multi-colored electric lights along Exhibitors' row gave to the scene a fairy-like beauty and brilliance that delighted the crowd. On Monday night the electric current was not so strong as was needed for the large number of electric lights, but last night Mr. H. E. Sands' force in charge of the dynamo gave all the power that was needed, and the result was more than gratifying.

The first attraction of the evening was the bag-race on the elevated stage, which was highly amusing, and was witnessed by a large and delighted crowd.

Then the crowds turned Midway-wards, and until the fair's closing hour arrived the several shows played to packed houses.

SOME OF THE VISITORS.

Many strangers came to town yesterday for the fair, but the bulk of the out-of-town patronage is due for to-day and to-morrow. Elks will be here on Thursday from Mannington, Fairmont, Grafton, Morgantown and other towns in the interior, and the attendance is expected to be a record-breaker that day. Registers at the hotels yesterday included the following:

Grand Central—C. W. Stewart, Sistersville; W. H. Hall, Fairmont; W. J. Hepwall and wife, Mannington; H. W. Paul, S. R. Caldwell, Wellsburg.

Windsor—E. F. Everhart, Fairmont; H. A. Wright and wife, Miss Bess Wright, Sistersville; W. J. Alexander, H. Blackshore, J. F. Beatty, W. J. Alexander and wife, Mannington; W. P. Conaway, Fairmont; E. G. Pappas, Sistersville; Oscar Jenkins, Joe Keller, Jr., and A. J. Smith, Parkersburg; J. A. Holley, wife and son, Charleston.

Howell—D. Dewar, E. J. Rex, Mannington; J. P. Martin, Sistersville; Jacob Kozant, Ralph Kozant, New Market; H. McIntyre, Alvin, H. E. Hardman, T. J. Salton, C. A. Warnock and wife, Middlebourne; John Pittro, Charlesburg; M. Dushong, Silver Hill.

Starnum—Frank Helen, Middlebourne; J. W. Grimes, Chaysville; John E. Evans, Junior, F. Fogle, W. Halton, of Cadiz; G. W. Burt, of Fogle, W. P. McEllan and wife, Cross and wife, J. P. Hill, Pennsboro; T. H. Marks, Wellsburg; Mrs. H. W. Hanlon and Mrs. W. H. Barlow, of Barneville; J. F. Koen

A. W. Prichard and Tom Quirk, Mannington; Frank W. Stewart, New Cumberland.

THE BABY SHOW

One of the Best Features of the day. Bellaire Baby Wins.

One of the best features of the street fair on Tuesday was the baby show on the elevated stage, at the lower end of the grounds, under the direction of Chairman C. R. Tracy, of the special features committee. Twenty-six little ones were entered for this contest, and they represented all classes of infantile beauty and cuteness. The judges were Dr. Harriet B. Jones, Mrs. John K. List and Mrs. Wylie Irwin.

The babies were arranged in a semi-circle on the stage, each in its mother's arms, and as every parent made it a point to adorn the little ones in their best bib and tucker the scene was one of beauty. Most of the babes behaved splendidly, though of course there were two or three who were frightened, and let people know it in no uncertain tone. The babies in the contest were James Elmer Cunningham, Georgia Gamble, H. Samuel McGowan, Lillian Cullin, William Howard, Frances May Sharp, Theodore Violet France, Ralph McCarty, J. W. Plummer, Garth Grayson Coule, Randolph Dean, Angela Irene Applegate, Wilmer A. McK., Elizabeth Bean, Irene Edwards, Mary Gordon, Ethel Marie Lawson, Martha Burris, Lewis Henry Thalman, Retta Johns, Gretta Marsh, Georgia Pebler, Ethel Maud Palmer, Edmund Bloom, David Lee, Julia Drew, Lemoyne Greenlee, Mary R. Merge.

The contest was won by Marie Brady, a Bellaire tot, aged seven months. Second prize went to Garth Conley, of the island.

FIRE IN THE MIDWAY

That was Extinguished Without Loss Five Laddies on Hand.

A slight blaze in the Japanese theatre that did little or no damage last night at 10 o'clock was the occasion of demonstrating the effectiveness of the arrangements made by Fire Chief Cline for subduing any incipient conflagration that might break out in the Elks' Magic City.

As soon as the alarm was turned in, the chemical was called out from its temporary quarters on Broadway, just north of the main entrance, and the run down through Exhibitors' row and into the Midway was made in quick time. Although the grounds were crowded, everybody got out of the way and the firemen experienced little trouble in arriving on the scene of the fire in quick time.

The blaze was caused by the explosion of a gasoline lamp in the Japanese theatre, and although there was much smoke and a big blaze on the ground, there was no destruction of property.

MUSIC HATH CHARMS

To Attract Immense Crowds in Front of Milligan, Wilkin & Co.'s Booths at the Street Carnival.

There is no lack of music at the Elks' carnival. The Opera House band renders two fine concerts daily and in the Midway there is music of all kinds. Along Exhibitors' Row, however, the one place which catches the eye and ear of the music-loving visitors are the booths occupied by Milligan, Wilkin & Company, the local music house. Here Prof. John Europe, of Washington City, puts in the afternoon and evening bringing forth from a Stultz & Bauer piano the sweetest kind of music. He is a master of the art and the space in front of the exhibit is crowded continually.

Milligan, Wilkin & Company, by the way, have as complete a show of pianos as was ever made in Wheeling. Their booths are artistically papered and the Elks' colors are prominent in the festooning of the building. Several potted plants are arranged with effect among the handsome pianos, and the place is as cozy and attractive as could be wished for. Among the pianos exhibited are the Knabe, Stultz & Bauer and Capen, all of which are too well known to require commendation at the time.

The exhibit is in charge of Messrs. R. C. Wilkin and E. H. Redman, who are kept busy entertaining the visitors and handing out handsome souvenirs in the shape of a fine engraving of the original Elk, the same as adorns the front page of the official programme.

At the firm's large sales rooms at 1128, 1140 and 1152 Market street, a full line of the finest pianos, organs and musical instruments of all kinds are on exhibition and will be shown with pleasure to all visitors during the present week.

THE LARGEST ELK'S HEAD

There are a great many elk horns and heads displayed about the city this week, but for the largest and without doubt the finest specimen, that shown by D. Gundling & Co. takes the prize. It is a handsome head, in a perfect state of preservation, and is surmounted by a set of horns magnificent to look upon. It occupies the center of the above named firm's booth at the fair, and is surrounded by the finest display of gentlemen's furnishings on the grounds. The booth is one of the most attractive and best trimmed, with bunting, potted plants, etc., and the arrangement of the excellent line of goods handled by the firm make it beyond comparison. Shirts, collars, cuffs, ties, gloves, umbrellas, walking sticks and clothing are shown, and the manner of their arrangement reflects great credit on the person who trimmed the booth. A full line of clothing of the best quality, gent's furnishing goods, etc., can always be found at D. Gundling & Co.'s, 34 and 36 Twelfth street.

THEY ALL SEE IT.

P. Welty & Co.'s Exhibit at the Fair. One of the Most Attractive—Over 2,000 Souvenirs Given Away.

One of the most popular resorts along Exhibitors' row is the handsome booth occupied by P. Welty & Co., and unless a person be totally blind he cannot pass without admiring it. The exterior is a thing of beauty and extremely appropriate. The frame work is made up of piles of boxes and within these a pyramid of polished barrels, in the center which is a large wine cask surrounded by incandescent lights. Bunting and purple and white tissue decorations add to the attractiveness of the place, as do two large framed advertising cards, on each side of the cask.

Within the same idea of decoration has been carried out. The walls are bedecked with bunting and a bench all the way around serves as a sitting room for tired friends of the firm. An appropriate souvenir is given out by the attendants in the shape of a small vial of Welty's best rye, and over 2,000 were given out during the past two days. The decoration of the salesrooms at 1121 Market street is also very attractive.

THE FURNITURE EXHIBIT

Of Alexander Frew Attracting General Attention at the Street Fair.

Nearly every branch of business is represented at the street fair, and some branches more than others. This is true of the furniture and carpet displays, of which there are several, but there are none of these that have attracted greater attention than that of Alexander Frew. The booth has been very artistically trimmed and decorated, and within it is one of the most complete displays of furniture of the highest class ever shown in the city. A handsome parlor and bed room suite are among the most attractive, and other house furnishings handled by this reliable firm are toward making their portion of the Elks' Carnival a success.

The firm has also arranged taking shows in the windows of their place of business at No. 1208 Main street, where a complete line of the highest class furniture, carpets, etc., will be shown to visitors to the fair with pleasure.

THEY MAKE STOGIES.

Hannan Brothers Have a Factory in Connection With Their Exhibit.

Those who have never seen cigars or stogies manufactured will have that opportunity when they visit the street fair, and the thousands who attended yesterday spent quite a little time taking advantage of it. In Hannan Bros' booths is a full-fledged licensed cigar factory, and two cigar workers demonstrate how the justly famous Hannan Bros. Little Havanas are made. The booths are decorated as nearly complete as any at the fair, and the finest decorations of purple and white blended beautifully, and the hundreds of electric lights make an effect that is truly bewitching. Surmounting the whole scene is one of the best electric signs ever seen in the city. There are 250 incandescent lights in the sign, and the result can easily be imagined. For the benefit of his patrons Mr. Charles Hannan has decided to keep his cigars and stogies on sale during the fair, and a man can see his stogies made before he smokes.

THE ONLY EXHIBIT

Of Monuments and The Work, is that Shown by J. E. Burley and Co. at the Street Fair.

J. E. Burley & Co. is the only firm at the street fair exhibiting a line of granite, marble and statuary, and their display has caught the eye of every visitor during the past two days. Within a booth, situated near the entrance, beautifully decorated, is a fine line of monuments, grave stones, the work, etc., and about the walls are hung attractive pictures of handsome monuments that have been finished by this enterprising company. The display is but a sample of the line carried by Messrs. Burley & Co., or of what can be furnished by them in this line. They are importers and manufacturers of this class of goods, and a visit to their place at No. 1606 Market street convinces one of this fact. Besides the goods above mentioned the company handles a full line of up-to-date mantels, grates, etc., which must be seen to be appreciated.

White Buffalo's Indian Village.

Of the eight thousand people who visited the Elks' carnival yesterday and entered the Midway over five thousand visited the Indian village, which is without doubt one of the greatest features of the fair. To-day in addition to the regular performance the interesting and picturesque Indian marriage ceremony will be given. This feature drew the largest mass of people ever in the St. Louis exposition.

NOTES OF THE FAIR.

The Midway is the Mecca, and everybody rushes for it.

The Elks take tickets and handle the crowds like veterans.

The wedding takes place at 7:30 to-night at the band stand.

The official programmes are selling well and are worth ten cents. "Squire Fitzpatrick plays his part very well and looks like a real sleuth. Charley Fehner looked at home in the box office at the main entrance yesterday.

If yesterday's weather will continue unclouded Saturday how thankful we all will be.

Cards, fans and souvenirs of all kinds are a boon to the younger visitors, and they go away loaded every day.

The name of Miss Annie Reed was omitted from the list of ladies in the King's Daughters booth at the Elks' fair.

If James A. Bailey discovers what an elegant "spell" Fred Thiers can make in front of the oriental theatre he will kidnap him sure.

The camels were worked overtime yesterday. It is one of the features of the Street of Cairo and furnishes any amount of amusement.

The crowds have so far been very orderly and good natured, and the police and watchmen have had little sion to call any person down.

A real Indian marriage will take place in the Indian village to-night at 8 o'clock. One of the brides will take unto himself a squaw of the tribe and there will be much feasting and merry-making.

Charles Hannan presented Crazy Bear, one of the Indians, with a box of Little Havanas yesterday. In return he hopes to have him pose as a cigar sign in front of his place during the coming winter.

As one approaches the path leading to the Warfield yacht landing the pretty decorations over the pathway and on the yachts and boats immediately catches the eye. The decorations are unique and appropriate.

One of the features in the Streets of Cairo is on oriental marriage ceremony. Last night Fred Thiers took the place of the dusky Turk and went through the dance and chanting as much at home as any of the sultan's own. He got a great hand when the ceremony was ended.

The history of the Order of Elks and that of Wheeling lodge, in the official programme, was written by Mr. John F. Richardson, one of the few charter members left. It is very interesting and reflects credit upon the writer. Besides Mr. Richardson, the other charter members are Hon. B. B. Dovenor, Sam B. Harrison and James K. Hall.

THE RAILROADS.

The other day a prominent western miller, whose railroad traveling has made him an expert, rode over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad from New York to Chicago for the first time. He had heard the merry jests and the caustic remarks which were based on the conditions that used to obtain, and kept "his eyes open." After reaching home he wrote a congratulatory letter to General Manager Underwood, and among other flattering things said:

"I want to assure you that I enjoyed the trip over your line very much indeed. I think the ride from New York to Washington is a most delightful trip; it was just after a rain, when nature was at its best.

"I will withdraw all my invidious remarks. I kept waiting for the 'swinging motion' on the way from Washington to Chicago, but did not discover it."

A Wise Choice.

At the regular meeting of the Retail Grocers' Association Monday evening, they decided for their fifth outing to go to the famous Mackinaw Island, where the days are fine and the nights are cool. They have completed their arrangements with the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railway and will leave on Tuesday, July 13, going to Cleveland and there taking the elegant Detroit & Cleveland steamers for a trip over Lake Erie, Lake St. Clair and Lake Huron to Mackinac, giving 220 miles of the most delightful lake travel. A rate of $10, with a stream day limit has been secured. Traveling Passengers' Agent O. R. Wood will accompany the party, looking after the comfort and accommodation of all who may join the party.

To Return Cuban Prisoners

WASHINGTON, June 27.—Senator Quesada, the Cuban agent here, has undertaken to secure the release and transportation to Cuba of the Cubans who were confined in the Spanish penal settlement of Ceuta and Fernando Po. Just how many of the prisoners are still in confinement is not known, but Senator Quesada called to-day upon Secretary Hay and Secretary Alger and secured from them promises to take steps immediately to secure the information as to the status of these prisoners necessary to the making of formal representations to the Spanish government on the subject.

Cup Defender's Good Work.

NEWPORT, R. I., June 27.—In a good, whole-sail breeze the new cup defender Columbia and the Defender, champion of 1895, had a second and more thorough test of their relative speed than in the light air of Sunday, and again the new boat proved that in windward work she could both out-point and outfoot the older craft.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

Elks' Oriental Street Carnival, MERCHANTS' DAY, THURSDAY, JUNE 29.

Thursday, June 29, having been set apart as Merchants' Day at the Elks' Street Fair, it should be made the crowning event. In order that all our citizens may have the opportunity to attend and contribute to the success of the enterprise, and enjoy its entertainments, I respectfully request a general suspension of business on the afternoon of that day.
